Writer's Guidelines for Value the Vows

Articles written for Value the Vows are intended to be published in our newsletter then archived on our website by topic. They will be promoted on social media by Value the Vows and may be used in future or linked to other articles on the site. We also expect writers to promote the articles on social media posts and in newsletters if applicable. You may retain rights to the article for use in your programs or books but not to use as web content to avoid duplicate content. Please observe Google SEO practices when referring to the article on the web. An original introduction, small snippet of the articles and a link to read on the originating site is acceptable.

We are a faith-based community of brides and wives at all stages of marriage who are striving to make their own lives and their marriages the best they can. Articles should be useful, inspiring and enjoyable. Any topic that Christian wives would be interested in will be considered.

Some articles will be purely practical, some will be about our faith in God and some will be a mixture. An article that contradicts our core values will be rejected.

Articles should be about 800-2000 words. One main idea with supporting ideas per article. The average reader should be able to read the article in 5 to 10 minutes.

Short videos no longer than 5 minutes will also be accepted.

Gravatars

If you do not already have a gravatar. Please upload a photo (professional looking headshot is best) and fill in the very short profile at www.gravatar.com. It is free and will place your photo on your info line after your article and will show up in many places on the web. A click on your photo will bring up the profile you enter. I use a larger size thumbnail as well on my web site. If you already have a gravatar I will have access to it. If this is a problem, please let us know.

Products

If you have a website, book or other product you would like to link to please send the information to us for review. A link to your resources is welcome in or at the end of your article or in a writer's bio. We do wish to read books and review products before giving an endorsement.

Please contact us about how we can work together for our mutual benefit for sales and list building. If you wish to link to your coaching or counselling service, we can discuss possibilities.

Core Values

We are committed to enhancing our customer's spiritual, mental, emotional and physical well-being.

We strive for excellence in all our products and services.

We partner with only those who share our commitment to God and then to our customer.

We strive to provide a work environment that operates in the best interest of our employees, affiliates and joint venture partners' personal and professional growth.

We are guided by faith in God and His Holy Scriptures

Introduction for Articles

If your article requires a short introduction to our readers, we will be happy to let you review it before we publish. You may want to write your own introduction geared to our readers. A rewrite of the beginning paragraph or the ending action paragraph to our readers may work instead.

Please submit your idea for an article in the message of the contact form and submit links to your website or a sample of your writing. Don't forget to look around ValuetheVows.com for the type of content we are looking for. The cornerstone pages for each topic will give you the best ideas.

Looking forward to working with you,

Nancy Marie Stubbs,

Founder and Editor at www.valuethevows.com
